1. Introduction and Proposal

- 1.1 The Human Resources Services is carrying out a review of key employment policies and procedures, in consultation with managers and trade unions.
- 1.2 The Grievance Resolution Procedure brings together the arrangements for dealing with workplace grievances under one procedure which is clearer and easier to follow. The emphasis is on grievance resolution and trying to resolve issues as quickly and as fairly as possible, in accordance with ACAS guidance etc.
- 1.3 The Procedure also sets out the Council's commitment to providing a working environment where individuals are treated with fairness, dignity and respect and free from all forms of bullying and harassment; this includes both the managers and employees personal responsibility for their own behaviour.
- 1.4 The Procedure has been equalities impact assessed and there is no adverse impact for any groups of employees; the new arrangements are objective, fair and easier to follow. The application of the Procedure will be monitored closely to ensure that it is applied fairly and consistently across the Council and in departments.

2. Financial Issues

- 2.1 There are no specific financial implications associated with this proposal.
- 2.2 The new grievance arrangements and the emphasis on resolving issues at the lowest possible level where possible, should lead to a reduction in both the amount of time spent on grievances as well as a general reduction in the number of formal grievances arising. The benefits arising from these changes are likely to include both a reduction in sickness absence through stress etc (which will increase overall service productivity) and a potential reduction in the number of grievances escalating to become Employment Tribunal cases. Currently any costs associated with ET's are funded from existing budgets and therefore any reduction in these cases will result in less being spent on such activities.
- 2.3 At this stage it is difficult to assess what the full financial benefits of these new arrangements would be until the scheme has been fully implemented and been in operation for a period of time. Officers will therefore need to monitor the new arrangements and report back accordingly on the quantitative benefits that have arisen.

3. Other Implications

- 3.1 Risk Management – The Grievance Policy and Procedure follow ACAS guidance, employment legislation and “best practice” and as such should help reduce the number of tribunal claims by encouraging workplace resolution of issues in a more efficient way.

- 3.2 Staffing Issues – The trade unions (and staff support networks) have been consulted on the proposals and their comments and feedback taken into account in the final document; they will be consulted on the arrangements for communicating and implementing these if agreed.
